

Grade 5: Year Plan

	September	October	November	December	January
ELAL	Reading for Understanding	Narrative writing		Graphic Novel	Nonfiction writing Information and opinion
	Spelling, grammar and word work including word meaning and origins, word make up such as prefixes and suffixes, strengthening of vocabulary, and figurative language such as similes and metaphors will be worked on throughout the years in all units.
Math	Review and Number sense		Multiplication and Division
Science	Scientific Method/Matter	Earth Systems	Earth Systems/Space	Space	Living Systems
Social Studies	We will be using the new Social Studies Curriculum this year. It is the first year we have gone through it so we will be exploring and learning with the students as we move forward. The new curriculum covers the ways people study people, places and events, how geography and environment lead to settlement and trade in ancient civilizations, the rise, evolution, fall and legacy of different ancient civilizations, as well as ways to learn about and change the world.
Bible	Sermon on the Mount		Throughlines		Image of Christmas Jonah
PEW	Team building	Gymnastics		Volleyball	Speedball

	February	March	April	May	June
ELAL	Nonfiction writing continued		Novel Study		Poetry
	Spelling, grammar and word work including word meaning and origins, word make up such as prefixes and suffixes, strengthening of vocabulary, and figurative language such as similes and metaphors will be worked on throughout the years in all units.
Math	Fractions and Decimals		Patterns, Algebra		Statistics and Probability	Shapes and Measurement
Science	Living Systems	Energy	Energy	Energy	Energy	Review
Social Studies	We will be using the new Social Studies Curriculum this year. It is the first year we have gone through it so we will be exploring and learning with the students as we move forward. The new curriculum covers the ways people study people, places and events, how geography and environment lead to settlement and trade in ancient civilizations, the rise, evolution, fall and legacy of different ancient civilizations, as well as ways to learn about and change the world.
Bible	Jonah	Parables of Jesus				Book of James
PEW	Speed Ball	Grasshopper	Dance	Kickball	Track and field	